

PLANNING COMMISSION POSITION OPENINGS

The City of Dayton has two openings available on the City of Dayton Planning Commission. This is a volunteer position. The Commission is responsible for reviewing various land use management issues and approving and/or making recommendations to the City Council of the City of Dayton. The Commission's main objective is to strengthen the City of Dayton's environmental quality of life while maintaining the character of community. As the schedule of activities dictates, the Commission meets on the third Monday of the month at 5:15 p.m.

Interested person(s) should submit a letter of interest to the Mayor, City of Dayton, 111 S. 1st Street, Dayton, WA 99328.

Dated this 28th day of June, 2011.

Trina Cole
City Clerk/Treasurer

July 6 and 13, 2011